Description

An exceptionally small & rare Domestic Regulator by this famous Clockmaking family. The substantial 8 day duration 5 pillar movement with thick shaped plates, a beautifully made deadbeat escapement, Harrison Maintaining power and a large wood rod pendulum with a heavy lead bob faced with brass on both sides and an engraved regulation nut. Also striking the hours on a bell and the backplate engraved with the makers name. A very rare feature on a longcase clock. The painted round 11" dial with Roman numerals, blued steel hand to the seconds, brass minute and hour hands of typical Barrauds design and the makers name and place of work to the centre of the dial. The exquisitely proportioned mahogany case with exceptional flame veneer and ebony mouldings throughout the front elevation, canted corners to the trunk and finishing with a double plinth to the base. The hood with brass lined and ebony inlaid inset panels surrounding the dial and canted corners. Also with sound frets to the side and terminating in a chamfer top. Note: The Barrauds family were prolific Clock & Watchmakers, particularly specialising in Chronometers. Paul Philip Barraud was Master of the Clockmaker...
