SoldItem Reference: SA288379*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

A really lovely quality mid-Victorian fitted SEWING BOX in excellent original condition. The box is of beautifully-figured Coromandel wood, inlaid to the front and lid with Mother-of-Pearl cartouches and escutcheons. This lid opens to reveal the interior, lined with original dark green gilt-tooled velvet fittings in pristine condition. Arranged within are the impressive original contents which include: the full set of TEN Mother-of-Pearl sewing reels; matching needle-cleaners etc and the full set of tools and implements. A few other sewing items can be found under the lids of the subsidiary compartments, which themselves have gilt brass knob handles.
