

SA289876

C19th late Qing Dynasty period
Chinese carved hardwood
'opium' or 'kang' table.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA289876

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

C19th late Qing Dynasty period Chinese carved hardwood 'opium' or 'kang' table. Scroll-ends with inverted leg design and 'floating' panel inset top, together with fruiting-vine open carved friezes. The panelled ends with carved vine decoration. The origins of the design relating to the raised platform, or 'kang' used in the ancient traditional Chinese home for sleeping or relaxing, upon which tables of this type were used. Good colour, and in excellent condition, cleaned and waxed. Useful low height coffee or drinks table. W 36" D 18" H 13". China c.1900

Internal Ref: MLBO 146

Seller Details

M Lees and Sons

Tower House 1 Castle Place Severn St Worcester WR1 2NB United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 826218 or 01905 26620

International Tel: +44 7860 826218 or +44 1905 26620

