Description

A charming little mahogany chest of drawers from the Victorian era. The moulded-edge top sits above an arrangement of graduated drawers – all of which are lined in solid mahogany – having their original turned knob handles. There is a simple plinth base support and the original backing boards. The top has an overhanging back to bridge the gap created by a skirting board. Well selected timbers with a totally untouched finish having a rich, warm colour and a glowing patination. This beautiful chest of drawers – measuring only 34.5" (875mm) across the carcass – is English, c.1870s. There is a working key to the top full-width drawer. Overall width 36 1/4" (920mm) Height 36" (915mm) Depth 19 1/2" (495mm) Waterfall Antiques is located in Bath, just 9 miles from J18 of the M4.
