Description

An absolute top-of-the-range example of a Regency mahogany cheval in superb original condition. The well-turned column uprights – surmounted by intricately-turned finials – are united by three stretchers and are supported by elegant downswung legs terminating in gilt-brass capped castors. It retains its original thumbscrews to adjust the tilting position, its original mercury glass plate in superb condition, and a four-panel backing board. Original finish throughout with a sublime colour and a rich glowing patina. This beautiful Georgian cheval mirror is English, c.1820, and is the finest we've seen in years. Width across uprights 26 1/2" (675mm) Overall height incl. finials 67 1/2" (1715mm) Depth, front to back 26" (660mm) . . IF YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW MORE...
