SoldItem Reference: SA290686*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A most unusual antique card case modelled as a book the spine being decorated with a floral engraving. The wooden carcass is covered in horn and the central panels both sides are decorated with a chequered design created with Ivory and horn tiles. Another unusual feature is the way the card case is opened, with a panel one end sliding off to access the visiting cards. One small edge chip, insignificant but shown and mentioned for accuracy. Excellent condition with a good shiny patina. 4 1/8" x 2 7/8". Item 35892
