Description

A most impressive late 19th century satinwood Sheraton Revival DISPLAY CABINET in superb condition. Constructed of well-figured West Indian satinwood, it is beautifully decorated throughout with hand-painted garlands of flowers and leaves, and with large musical motifs to the lower sections of both sides, whilst the twin doors, each with 12 glazed panels, feature delightful ovals of playful putti flanked by urns and swags. These doors open to reveal the four adjustable shelves inside with 'hidden' storage below. It stands on toupee feet, hand painted with 'stiff' leaf decoration and measures: 49ins wide; 60ins high and 16ins deep. (125 x 152 x 40.5cms)
