Description

ANONYMOUS: a charming and fine quality late 18th century ebonised BRACKET CLOCK of unusually smaller size and in perfect working order. The fine case is surmounted by a cast brass carrying handle to the top, whilst the front door, which incorporates the cast brass circular bezel is edged with gilt brass mounts. To the sides are glazed panels, also edged in brass, and it stands on its four original and substantial cast brass feet. The eight-day movement retains its original verge escapement, striking hours on a bell with engraved backplate and 'bob' pendulum, whilst the dial is of particularly good quality enamel with both Roman and Arabic numerals. It repeats hours at will by means of the pull-cord. The ornate hands are original including the third hand, which automatically indicates the date. A lovely clock, measuring 15ins high (39cms) excluding handle.
