Description

ALFRED DROCOURT: a good quality French CARRIAGE CLOCK timepiece by this famous maker, in full working order. Contained within its good 'Corniche' case, the 8-day movement retains its original platform lever escapement and is numbered (21634) to both movement and case. This number is repeated on the original winding key. Full working order and guaranteed at least two years.  Drocourt worked producing carriage clocks until about 1920, his last clock being numbered 35,233. This clock can therefore be dated some twenty or thirty years earlier, probably in the 1880's.
