Description

A totally original and finely fitted George III period "KNIFE" or CUTLERY BOX in excellent original condition. The serpentine shaped lid, with its chequer-strung border and oval 'batwing' patera to the centre, opens to reveal the stunning interior, fitted for six large knives and forks; six small knives and forks and six spoons, plus serving items, within a matrix of finely inlaid divisions. The inside of the lid is similarly inlaid with a central star, whilst the outside is beautifully veneered in "flame" mahogany with chequered string inlaid borders throughout. A good example.
