

SA291396

Georgian Chippendale Style Mahogany Serpentine Desk

Price

GBP 1,600

| USD $2,161 | EUR 1,871

Item Reference: SA291396Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

A beautiful Chinese Chippendale-style mahogany kneehole desk with a serpentine front and shaped bracket feet. Featuring blind fretwork carving to the canted corners, ornate pierced handles with rams masks and beautifully chosen flame mahogany veneers. This is a good quality example with oak drawer linings and locks to each drawer. This is a nice size and the drawers are large enough to take A4 papers. It is in good condition, there are some scratches & marks in the polish across the central drawer and minor ink marks inside, there is no key for the locks although a locksmith should be able to cut one. Width - 47 1/4" (120cm) Depth - 21 1/2" (55cm) Height - 31 3/4" (80.5cm) This is a 'one piece' desk and does not dismantle for moving. Ref: 0295 Please feel free to ask any questions or for more photos.

Internal Ref: 0295

Seller Details

The Antique Furniture Company

Glasgow Scotland

Tel: 01337 920027

International Tel: +44 1337 920027

