Description

A rare find of matching silver stands for teapot and hot water jug. These attractive items have pierced silver frames over thick glass disks. Often used on the tea tables of early 20th Century tables, they provide a decorative and practical use. they would of course, also serve as coasters for any other items including decanters or wine bottles. Condition :- Very good with no dents, splits or losses. The silver is lifting slightly to the centre, which is usual and commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- Walker & Hall. Date :- Birmingham 1923/5. Diameter :- 15 cms.
