Description

JASPAR SMITH of LONDON: a fine quality and thoroughly original 18th century mahogany BRACKET CLOCK in full working order. The case is of finely-figured mahogany, with pineapple finials; ormolu embellishment to the 'bell' top and cast and pierced brass spandrels to the door. The eight-day movement retains its original verge escapement, striking hours on a bell, and repeating hours via the pull cord, at will. The dial is lovely with "Strike/Silent" in the arch; mock pendulum and date aperture above "VI", whilst the good pierced blued steel hands are also original. It is signed on the dial, whilst the movement features a finely engraved backplate; engraved brackets and original pendulum with engraving to the bob. Quite small, just 18.5ins (47cms) high.
