SoldItem Reference: SA293358*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A good quality rosewood NEST OF FOUR TABLES almost certainly by Gillows of Lancaster. Of typically fine "Gillows" quality, each of the four tables is veneered with well-figured rosewood and inset with a solid rosewood 'beading' around each edge. They are supported on well-turned slender uprights, united by turned stretchers (for stability) leading to carved corbels and slender bases each with applied plain domed paterae. They fit together particularly well, and the largest measures 29ins (73.5 cms) high.  This beading serves two purposes: firstly to prevent items from falling off, and secondly to prevent the tops of the lower tables being marked, when being drawn out, by the underneath of the larger table above.
