Description

This is a lovely still life oil painting on canvas of stunning quality and detail, by the artist Montague W. Jackson, who has signed the painting M. W. Jackson in the lower right hand corner and inscribed it verso on a label Montague W. Jackson 'Forty Seven' Wayside Avenue, Bushey Heath, Herts Roses No. 3. The painting depicts a large porcelain or pottery figure of a cherub, standing on a table next to a blue and white vase containing some cream and white roses. The cherub is reflected in the polished surface of the table. NOTE the faint silhouette of a cherub face reflecting behind the painted cherub figurines head, slightly to the left. ARTIST MONTAGUE JACKSON Montague Walter Jackson was born in Hendon in 1890, the son of a gardener. In the 1911 Census, he was still living at home with his parents a 9 Granville Road, Child's Hill, Hendon, Middx and was listed as an art student. He married in 1929 and at some stage was living at the above address in Bushey Heath. He died in Chichester, West Sussex in 1976. We have found 1 auction results for his work in recent years, where a portrait sold for $1,288 at Woolley and Wallis in Salisbury in 1991. FRAME The painting has be...
