Description

This little table which when closed is only 29" x 9.5" dates from the 17th century. The base has fantastic twisted uprights and a wavy base. The top which probably dates from the late 18th century is completely in keeping with the proportions of the base. It is a useful piece as it takes up no space when closed (74cm x 24cm) but opens to 36" x 29" (74cm x 90cm) it is just 25" (63cm) high. Take a look at the photos.
