Item Reference: SA295331

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

An attractive late Victorian silver pillbox with a hinged lid. The attractive body is repousse work, featuring flowers and leaves and the interior is gilded. This is a lovely and practical example and superior to the more usual pull-off lid design. Condition :- Very good with no holes or splits. The base has a few pinprick dents, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- Birmingham 1900. Maker :- Synyer & Beddoes. Diameter :- 3.5 cms. Height :- 1.5 cms.
