SoldItem Reference: SA295338*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

An absolutely stunning example of a 19th century fruitwood kitchen dining table. The three-plank rectangular top sits above a simple frieze with one drawer to one of the long sides, all supported on tapering square-section legs. This beautiful table – one of the finest we've seen in many years – has the richest colour and patination imaginable. It is most probably in cherrywood, and is dated to c1850. It can accommodate six to eight people. . . Length 72" (1825mm) Width 31 1/2" (800mm) Overall height 29 1/4" (740mm) . Waterfall Antiques is located in Bath, just 9 miles from J18 of the M4.
