Description

A top quality example of a 19th century single-door general-purpose cabinet, ideal for use as a bedside cupboard. The moulded-edge overhanging top with its three-quarter gallery upstand, sits above a simple storage compartment with a single fixed shelf enclosed by a rectangular-panelled side hung door. This stunning Victorian cupboard, made by the highly respected cabinetmakers/retailers Heal & Son of London, dates from c.1870s. . . .
