Description

A.J. SCOTTE: a large impressive French BRONZE SCULPTURE of a young peasant farm girl. Leaning on her pitchfork, she stands with her arms crossed with a sheaf of corn at her feet. Signed by the artist and with both a foundry mark dated 1906, and an applied presentation plaque rewarding the recipient for his long faithful service from 1881 until 1925. This is a large bronze, measuring 23ins (58.5cms) high.  A.J. SCOTTE was born in 1885 and died young in 1915 at the age of 30. It is likely he was killed in the First World War.
