Description

Mid C19th English porcelain jardinière or 'cache-pot'. Beautifully hand-painted pot with wild poppy and wheat-sheaf design. Both sides painted with a variant of the same decoration, on a powder blue ground. Gilded rim and foot-rim, applied with twin 'rope-twist' double handles. Minor rubbing to gilt and blue-ground. Some minor staining to interior. Has a Victorian registration 'kite' mark to base, which signifies it was manufactured on 30th September 1861. No factory mark, but high quality piece probably by Minton or Coalport. H 7" Dia . 8". England c.1861
