Description

About as good as they get, I haven't had a cup this good for some time. Excellent quality, the horn has a bright patina showcasing the natural horn. The bottom is glass and both the top and bottom mounted with sterling silver, a good gauge and excellent quality. Both are hallmarked, the full mark for London 1876 together with the coveted Queen Victoria's Head duty mark. The front is mounted with a shield shaped mount, vacant and without engraving. Fabulous example and in excellent condition. The rim diameter measures 3", the base 2 1/4"; standing 4 5/8" tall. Item ID: 35920 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
