Description

A pleasure to offer for sale a magnificent long-case clock that is in top class condition. The flame mahogany case, with rosewood cross banding, retains its original French-polished finish and has a wonderful rich, deep patina. The 8 day, moonroller movement has just been fully overhauled by our own BHI registered staff. The clock has subsidiary second and date dials and the moon phases to the arch. It is signed MORATH. LIVERPOOL. Morath is recorded as working in Liverpool during the 1860's. Liverpool made clocks are regarded as being among the finest examples in the Country due to the tremendous wealth of the area in those times. Dimensions: Height 90" Width 24" Depth 10"
