FRENCH ORMOLU PORCELAIN-MOUNTED MANTEL CLOCK

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA299364*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

An attractive and good quality mid-19th century French MANTLE CLOCK in splendid condition and in perfect working order. The case is of finely cast ormolu, retaining its original bright gilding and surmounted by a porcelain urn, with a further "Sevres" pink porcelain panel below the dial featuring twin putti and flanked by matching curved porcelain panels to the sides. The eight-day movement, signed by the makers: Japy Frères, strikes hours and half-hours on a bell, and retains its original numbered pendulum. A good quality French clock in perfect working order and guaranteed (as are all our clocks) for at least two years.
