Antique Victorian Mahogany Chest of Drawers

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA299844*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

Antique Victorian mahogany chest of drawers in good original condition, with a lovely original warm colour & full of character. This is definitely one of the better quality versions of this type of chest. It has a solid mahogany top, mahogany bun handles, locks on all the drawers & very deep graduated drawers. The bottom drawer actually comes out joined to the plinth, so there is no wasted storage space. There are also flat bun feet at the base. The drawer bottoms are all solid too & the sides are joined with fine dovetails. This chest dates from around the 1860's period, so there are naturally various old marks, indentations, etc, so don't expect it to look new, but it is in good condition & structurally sound, with drawers that work. You may notice that the top right hand drawer has had a small piece of beading knocked off. This will be fixed before it goes out, so don't be put off by that. Width - 42", 107 cm Depth - 21.3", 54 cm Height - 44.5", 113 cm
