Description

Very impressive pair of naturally distressed leather wing armchairs in excellent original condition. The leather is a distressed brown, with a slight reddish tinge showing in places & they really are a wonderful colour. They have hump backs & generously shaped wings. These armchair are very sturdy, helped by the fact that they sit on mahogany legs that are joined by cross stretchers. They also have loose feather cushions & are hand tacked all over. I would date them to around the 1910-20's period. Width - 30", 76 cm Depth - 31.5", 80 cm Height - 47.3", 120 cm Seat height - 19", 48 cm
