Description

This antique bow fronted walnut chest of drawers is amazing quality & a great looking piece of furniture. The top is burr walnut with cross banding & ebony inlays. It also has an overhang on the back to keep it closer to the wall allowing for skirting boards. All the drawers are graduated & finely dovetailed. They have a wonderful burr walnut pattern running through all four drawer fronts. They also have ebony inlay, cross banding, original brass handles, escutcheons & locks. The front corner edges are curved, the sides are figured walnut & it sits on solid walnut feet. This chest has many other very nice features, so please enlarge all the images. I would date this piece to around the 1910-20's period. Width - 29", 74 cm Depth - 20.5", 52 cm Height - 38.6", 98 cm
