Description

A lovely Regency mahogany long-case clock by JACOB LEVY of TRURO. A typical slim and refined case one would expect from this elegant era. Made from choice flame mahogany with rosewood crossbanding, it retains its original French-polished finish and has a lovely warm, rich patina. It has a full length door and spiral turned pillars to the trunk and the hood. The 8 day movement has just been fully overhauled by our BHI registered staff. It strikes the hours on a bell with a lovely crisp tone. The painted arched dial has black Roman numerals and a river scene to the arch. It is signed "Jacob Levy. Truro." He is recorded as working in Truro 1822-1847. A very fine clock. Dimensions: Height 85" (216cm) Width (max) 21" (53cm) Depth 10" (26cm) Trunk 14" X 8" (36x20cm)
