Description

Fine large example of the classic Edwardian roll top desk c.1905. In solid oak, panelled and polished on all sides, the tambour top slides open to reveal a good sized work space and a fitted interior featuring 11 docket drawers with original brass label holder handles, plus pigeon holes, stationery drawers and pen trays. On graduated drawer pedestals, with writing slides to each and a single drawer to the knee-hole. The bottom right hand drawer is double height for files (and bottles!). All the drawers are locked automatically when the top is closed. With a old water mark or similar to the top, otherwise excellent colour and condition, cleaned and polished in our work shops. Original lock and key supplied. Dimensions: width 60", depth 34", height 50".
