Description

French 19th Century Carved Oak and Chestnut Chest of Drawers. This is a charming little piece, the chest is supported on each side by carved female figures known as Caryatid, they are superbly carved and have cloven feet in the centre there are three drawers with iron ring handles, this is a very unusual piece and petit in size so will fit in almost any where, it would make a good night table. The chest is in very good condition. The Chest of drawers is 14" deep, 18" wide and 36" tall MG77.
