SoldItem Reference: SA301248*Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

A pair of antique single beds in Queen Anne revival style. The headboards have shaped tops and the footboards stand on small cabriole legs. They would have probably been veneered originally but have been stripped back at some point to a natural wood finish which has been lightly waxed. The headboards stand on castors. They come complete with irons, the "Vono" frames are easily assembled or dis-assembled for storage. A very stylish pair of beds dating from circa 1910. Construction/Wood: Solid wood Condition Report: They would have probably been veneered originally but have been stripped back at some point to a natural wood finish which has been lightly waxed. Scuffs and marks commensurate with age to the headboards and a small split to the bottom of one foot. The iron supports have been painted black. Complete with iron rails. Dimensions: Frame width: 36" Frame Depth: 75" Headboard Height: 55" Footboard Height: 24" External Bed Frame Length: 80" To Fit Mattress Size: Single Bed
