SoldItem Reference: SA301744*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A good quality late 19th century Gentleman's CLOCK & BAROMETER DESK SET, in perfect working order. The clock has an eight-day timepiece movement, with its original lever platform and its perfect enamel dial, whilst to the others side, the aneroid barometer, also with a perfect enamel dial, reverses to reveal the curved mercury thermometer. It is supported on a polished brass stand and a circular marble base and is completely original throughout.
