Description

Bather Surprised by M. W. Blackden, sculpture in composition ~ French - Circa 1900 ~ A large (38 1/2" tall) and very decorative sculpture of a young bather by listed artist M. W. Blackden. She is beautifully depicted in a shy, naturalistic pose in plaster composition with a lovely original bronzed finish. Blackden is listed as exhibited in 1890 in the artprice database, the artist's signature is incised to the base. A beautiful piece to brighten any corner! Condition is good, plaster composition is delicate and there is some damage although the finish is very good. There is a chip to the neck (head has been re-attached), some chips to the base and some cracking here and there including the arm and foot. A very chic and desirable piece for your collection! Dimensions: inches: Height 38 1/2", Width 8", Depth 8" centimetres: Height 98 cm, Width 20 cm, Depth 20 cm Shipping within UK: we would prefer collection due to the delicate nature of this piece but we can organise a specialist courier at additional cost or deliver locally for free.
