

SA303335

A fine quality Biedermeier
timepiece Viennese Regulator, circa 1860.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA303335

Date of manufacture: 1860

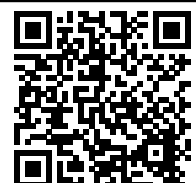

Description

Maker: Mathias Brezzman in Wien Date: 1860 Height: 46" Width: 10" Depth: 4.5" Price: £4,400 A fine quality Biedermeier timepiece Viennese Regulator, circa 1860. The beautifully figured walnut case inlaid throughout with boxwood stringing, surmounted with a carved pediment with matching carvings to the glazed door sides and base. The two piece enameled dial with Roman numerals and signed to the dial centre with makers name, The inner and outer dial surrounded by polished brass bezels. The fine quality eight day movement with deadbeat escapement. Polished brass cased weight, with ornate spoked pulleys, polished brass bob pendulum (front and back) with wooden rod. Extremely finely fretted blued steel hands of "beetle and poker" design. All of our clocks have been sympathetically restored and have been expertly vetted for originality and good working order. All longcase clocks, bracket clocks, wall clocks and barometers purchased from us are guaranteed for two years.

Seller Details

FJ & RD Story Antique Clocks

The Old Vicarage Highthorn Road Kilnhurst South Yorkshire S64 5TX
United Kingdom

Tel: 07899 751 446 or 01709 589 736

International Tel: +44 7899 751 446 or +44 1709 589736