Description

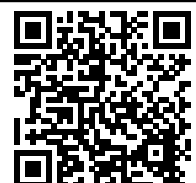

A stunning Edwardian cut crystal perfume of scent bottle in a most elegant design. The collar and hinged lid is made from English sterling silver with a hallmark for Birmingham 1910, the makers mark is hard to decipher. The top of the hinged lid is inset with a polished piece of period Tortoise Shell with intricate silver pique inlay, all framed with a decorative raised border. The lid fits well and once opened reveals the original glass stopper to keep the precious contents of the bottle air tight. Excellent condition, measuring 3 1/2" in diameter x 4 1/4" tall.
