Description

A stunning and most handsome scent or cologne bottle, perfect for either a lady or gentleman. The bottle is made from a thick piece of crystal, deeply cut, most tactile. The screw top is made from sterling silver, partly gilded creating a gold and silver two-tone finish. The top has a full hallmark for London 1881 together with the highly sought-after Queen Victoria's head duty mark. The makers initials are also present, I think for the silversmith, Frederick Purnell. Excellent condition, measuring 2 3/4" x 1 1/2" x 3 7/8" tall.
