Description

A late 17th early 18th century Walnut chest of drawers. William and Mary-c1690-1700. To the top, this very imposing chest has mirrored burr walnut veneers over a moulded cornice, with two short and three long graduating drawers, with the most lovely burr walnut and cross-banded fronts. Later re-placed Georgian handles brass handles. Ormate brass escutcheons. Each drawer is constructed from oak, opening on side-runners. With oak and pine panelled sides. Originally would have separated into a two part chest, now fixed. Evidence of the original bun shaped feet, now standing on a later, pointed toe cabriole legs, with a shaped front apron. The walnut is a wonderful rich warm colour, having developed a glowing patina over the centuries, very tactile. The condition overall is very good antique condition, with general expected signs of use consistent with age. Minor repairs. The dimensions are. Height-118cm. Width-103cm. Depth-59cm. VIEWING.
