Description

Impressive mid 19th.c. walnut cylinder top desk c.1860. Lift the cylinder cover to reveal a fitted interior of pigeon holes and maple veneered stationery drawers over a slide out 53" x 21" leather top writing surface . On graduated drawer pedestals with a generously proportioned kneehole between. Of well considered and practical design, with is a desk to be used; a crisply moulded gallery around the top prevents things slipping off, whilst three lifting panels to the desk surface provide extra space for documents and stationery etc. Superb quality with solid walnut sides and drawer fronts and mahogany drawer linings. A polished rear side means the desk could be used standing in the centre of a room rather than against a wall. Fabulous condition, retaining the original turned knobs, brass handles and locks. Cleaned and polished in our workshops and fitted with new leather skivers. Key supplied. Dimensions: width 60", depth 31", height 47".
