Description

Here is a good quality French wardrobe. c1890. This elegant wardrobe is constructed from solid oak. To the top of this very pretty wardrobe, is a moulded cornice with a beautifully carved pediment, with a pretty bow design to the top, with an elegant wreath and swag design below, flanked by a scoop carved frieze. Below are double doors, fronted with the original large bevelled mirrors, which opens to reveal a huge hanging space, with a long wooden hanging rail. With bolt locks to the left door, and working lock and key to the right door. The door handles are pretty brass drop design handles, which appear to be replacements. The front of the wardrobe is very attractive, having moulded panels for each bevelled mirror. Having canted, reeded corners. The base section has two drawers with scoop carved decoration and pretty original brass handles. Standing on tall turned feet. The condition is very good, having general signs of age and use, minor knocks and bumps. The mirrors are in very good condition, with minimal signs of age. The wardrobe completely breaks down, the top lifts off, the central body literally flat-packs, leaving the base drawer section. Ve...
