Description

A rare find indeed! A very small Victorian chest of drawers with its original paint finish. This absolutely charming bedroom chest in solid pine retains an eyecatching paint-effect finish simulating English oak. It has beautiful old turned fruitwood handles, its original feet and backing boards, and there is a working key to the top full-width drawer. It is full of country character and would grace any small cottage bedroom. English, c.1875. . . Width 32.75" (830mm) Height 32.25" (820mm) Depth 18.25" (465mm) Width across carcass 30.75" (880mm)
