Description

This small antique solid mahogany writing table is in lovely original condition & is also really good quality. It has a hand coloured leather writing surface & brass casters. There is a single drawer on the front with fine dovetails & original brass handles. It has turned legs with some fine carvings. This desk looks good from all angles & the back is polished too. I would date this desk to around the 1840-60's period. Width - 39.4", 100 cm Depth - 22", 56 cm Height - 30.3", 77 cm Knee height - 24.5", 62 cm Many more images of this & other items on my main web site - www.churchstreetantiques.net
