Description

This Silver Victorian button hook dates to 1901. In excellent condition and assayed in Birmingham 1901, this lovely piece bares the makers mark of Thomas Hayes. At approximately 24cm in length, the Silver handle is approximately 10cm long with the shaft and hook made from steel. The handle is beautifully engraved and the hallmarks are clear to read. The handle also features a vacant cartouche which could potentially be engraved by the owner. This would make a wonderful Christmas present or as an addition to your own Silver collection.
