Description

This quality antique mahogany bookcase / bookshelves has shaped and moulded cornice below which are two finely carved corbels flanking a pair of glazed doors behind which are three fully adjustable original shelves. The doors are on pin hinges so can easily be removed and transforming the bookcase into an open bookcase as seen in the last image. The mahogany timber used is of the finest quality with a fantastic original colour and patina which has been carefully cleaned and waxed. The bookcase is raised on a mahogany plinth having two mahogany lined and carved front (mimicking the bottom of the corbel) drawers with brass knob handles. In mint condition this is a super quality and very useful item of furniture with a beautiful patina and colour ready for home use.
