Description

EMILIE LOUIS PICAULT: a large, spectacular and highly impressive late 19th century BRONZE SCULPTURE entitled "Reveil de la Nature": ("The Awakening of Nature"). Measuring 28ins (71cms) high, it depicts the scantily-clad young couple, emblematic of nature, walking through woods, their eyes only for each other. Fine patina and excellent condition. Titled to the manqué and signed to the base both with the artists signature and foundry mark. ** Emilie Louis Picault, born in 1833, was a fine and highly regarded French sculptor, best known for his allegorical and patriotic works, as well as mythological heroes. He died in 1915
