SoldItem Reference: SA307779*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A superb quality Regency period mahogany DRUM TABLE in fine condition and of a delightful compact size. The top, which is just 36ins (91.5cms) diameter, features a blind-tooled leather hide writing surface within a narrow cross-banded edge. The frieze is beautifully inlaid with brass scrolls and flowers whilst below are four drawers interspersed with four 'dummy' drawers, all of which are "panelled" with brass inlay. It is supported on a turned and carved central column, leading to the triform base, also brass-inlaid and terminating in good carved solid scrolled feet with castors below. A fine Regency Drum Table ~ ideal as a centre or Hall Table ~ of rare compact size.
