Description

This stunning solid silver napkin ring dates from 1917. Fully hallmarked Sheffield 1917 it bears the maker's mark of 'James Dixon and Sons Ltd'. In very good condition throughout with only slight surface scratching, which is to be expected from an item this old. The hallmarks are nice and clear and the ring features linear engravings around the top and bottom. There are no initials or engravings. Weighing approximately 33g and measuring 4.2cm across the ring has a width of 2.8cm. This would make an ideal Christening or Christmas present, or perhaps as an excellent addition to your own silver collection.
