Description

Here is a very charming late 17th/early 18th century oak double bed. c1700. This rare oak bed simply oozes character. The headboard has four panels, with carved moulded decoration to each panel. The footboard has chunky posts, topped with delightful turned capitals. The head and footboard each have pierced holes, which would have been originally for rope webbing. The original side rails are missing, which have been replaced in the early 20th century with iron side rails. Still having the matching bed base, from the same period. We would be happy to add custom made wooden bed slats if required. The colour is delightful, a rich, warm and glowing patina, very tactile, oozes character. The condition is very good, having general signs of use consistent with age. Very heavy, solid, sturdy and strong. The dimensions are. Height-118cm headboard. Height-77cm footboard. Width-145cm. Length-209cm. The bed fits a standard UK double 4ft 6" mattress. VIEWING. Viewings are available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to make an appointment-thanks. DELIVERY.
