

SA309180

Rare early C19th Regency period Anglo-Indian coromandel armchair.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA309180

Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

Rare early C19th Regency period Anglo-Indian coromandel armchair. A finely-drawn example of a classic Regency design armchair constructed entirely from solid East Indian coromandel or Calamander . Elegant reeded frame, scroll arms, and sabre legs ,with double-bar lumbar support with a finely carved central classical floral motif .Shaped and reeded top rail, with original cane-work/rattan seat and of typical Colonially-made pegged construction. Strikingly-figured exotic timber. Amin Jaffer "Furniture from British India and Ceylon" illustrates a solid Calamander sofa table from Ceylon p.367 no. 176. W (of seat)21" D 17" H (of back)33" . Anglo-India , probably Ceylon c. 1810

Internal Ref: MLBO 1411

Seller Details

M Lees and Sons

Tower House 1 Castle Place Severn St Worcester WR1 2NB United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 826218 or 01905 26620

International Tel: +44 7860 826218 or +44 1905 26620

