Description

A magnificent top quality jewelry box dating to around 1825. The box is extremely heavy and solid, the exotic (and very expensive) Rosewood bound in solid polished brass, even on the underside, a true sign of quality. The top is inlaid with the original owner's plaque, engraved " Mrs. C.W. Hodson ". The front is inlaid with a shaped escutcheon which houses the working key. The lid opens to reveal a large interior, re-lined in a hand-marbled paper creating a fresh, clean finish; perfect for keeping papers, letters, photographs or indeed some larger pieces of jewellery or keepsakes. Another sign of quality are all the interior edges finished in solid brass. There is a second key which is used to open the drawer below which retains the original very smart velvet and silk fitted jewelry tray; amazing condition considering it's nearly 200 years of age. A magnificent large box in excellent condition measuring 13" x 10" x 7 1/4". Item ID: 36050 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
