Antique Queen Anne Style Walnut Display Cabinet

Description

This antique Queen Anne style walnut display cabinet is very good quality & has just been re-polished, so is in good condition. It's quite deep, so there is plenty of storage inside, both top & bottom. The back & bottom of the top display section is mirrored & there are two plate glass shelves. There is also a light fitting in the top half, but I haven't checked if it works or not & it should be rewired for safety reasons. This display cabinet has nice carvings on the top & bottom sections. The wood is predominately figured walnut, with burr walnut oval panels on the bottom doors. I would date this cabinet to around the 1920-30's period. Width - 37.5", 95 cm Depth - 19.7", 50 cm Height - 65.4", 166 cm
